FEBRUARY HALF TERM

ENJOY SOUTH DEVON IN FEBRUARY

South Devon comes alive with a plethora of exciting events and activities during the February holidays, offering a perfect blend of indoor and outdoor experiences for families, couples and solo travellers.

With its stunning landscapes, charming towns, and vibrant cultural scene, South Devon provides an ideal backdrop for a memorable and diverse getaway break.

For nature enthusiasts, the region's picturesque countryside and coastline offer fantastic opportunities for outdoor exploration. You can enjoy brisk walks along the Southwest Coast Path, taking in breathtaking views of the English Channel or the serene beauty of the Dartmoor National Park. Additionally, various nature reserves and parks organise special activities for families, combining learning with fun.

Cultural aficionados can delve into the rich history and artistic heritage of South Devon. Museums and historical sites often host interactive exhibitions and workshops suitable for all ages.

Families can immerse themselves in the region's maritime history, exploring museums that showcase the significance of coastal life and trade.

The area boasts a vibrant culinary scene with numerous restaurants, cafes, and local markets showcasing the finest regional produce. Did we mention our famous Devonian Cream Teas?

So come and treat the family... we'll look forward to welcoming you to The Cottage Hotel.
